

Spaight's Quay (now Mount Kennett). Francis Spaight is described in an 1840 publication as being a merchant and ship owner, and at the time probably used this quay. This publication states that Francis Spaight also had a business in Honan's Quay, and part of that quay was briefly known also as Spaight's Quay.