

ST. FIN BARR'S, CORK,

IT is proposed to raise £10,000 as an Endowment Fund for the Cathedral of St, Fin Barr At a meeting held in the course of past week, the following resolutions were passed :—"That for the preservation, in the future, of the fabric of the Cathedral, and of the numerous and costly memorials and works of art which the building contains, an endowment is absolutely essential" "That the maintenance of the choir and the supply of all other things necessary for the performance of divine service in the cathedral in a becoming and dignified manner, entails an expense towards which all the members of the church in the diocese at large may be called upon to fairly and lawfully contribute, either by annual subscription or by donations to the Endowment Fund." Already close upon £4,000 has been subscribed.

[Taken from Irish Builder, Vol. XXV, 1883, p.168]